

BUILDING & CONSTRUCTION EDUCATION

This course has been designed for business owners and anyone involved in project management, and will be of particular interest to Construction and Project Managers, Project Coordinators and Site and Works Managers or those intending to be involved in the area of estimating or controlling costs on projects.

Estimating and Cost Control

Aimed at the Building and Construction Industry

Course Overview:

This ONLINE course is delivered via a combination of video instructions and examples, course workbook and exercises.

This course provides training in the areas of developing estimates and controlling costs. The course looks at estimating techniques, budget establishment, implementing cost control and reporting on cost performance.

Estimating and Cost Control - Designed by Builders for Builders

- Understanding the sensitivity of estimates
- Basic spreadsheet based estimating
- Types of resources used in projects
- Cost estimating techniques
- Establishing cost budgets
- Revision of cost budgets
- Identifying cost control requirements
- Effective cost control techniques
- Reporting cost performance progress
- Early identification of deviation from cost budget

Exner - Proud Sponsors of:
NAWIC - University of Melbourne Award for Work Experience
Excellence - Exner Bicycle Team - Exner Andrews Racing

Exner Engineering Pty Ltd
Ph +61 411 043 167
Fax +61 3 9374 3921
info@exner.com.au
www.exner.com.au